To Whomsoever It May Concern.

I am writing to acknowledge and commend the exemplary efforts of Dr. Rakesh Kumar Sinha, President, Thrive India (Consultancy for Business Excellence) in achieving ISO 9001:2015 certification for our company, SOP Containers, located in Ankleshwar, Bharuch, Gujarat.

Under Dr. Rakesh Kumar Sinha 's leadership, we have not only met but exceeded the stringent requirements of the ISO 9001:2015 standard. Their dedication to building a robust quality management system has been instrumental in enhancing our operational processes and documentation practices. Through their meticulous approach, we have established a strong foundation for quality assurance and continuous improvement, which has significantly contributed to our business excellence.

Dr. Rakesh Kumar Sinha has demonstrated exceptional skills in developing and implementing effective systems that align with international standards, ensuring that our processes are both efficient and compliant. Their ability to manage complex documentation and integrate quality management practices into our daily operations has been a key factor in our successful certification.

I highly recommend Dr. R.K.Sinha for their outstanding contributions and expertise in quality management and system documentation. Their work has set a new benchmark for excellence within our organization.

Yours sincerely,
Pankaj Agarwal
